Freelance

I strongly believe that engaging in personal work has significantly enhanced my skills as a designer with every project I take on. Some of these projects are self-initiated, while others come as client requirements for branding, illustration, and social media creatives. I have collaborated with multiple brands, primarily focusing on illustration and branding, for clients such as Kotak Mutual Funds, Skechers, Set Wet and L&T Finance. Additionally, have contributed to various production houses on projects like Khatron Ke Khiladi (2019), Sui Dhaaga, and an upcoming film that is yet to be released.
